Unleashing the Potential of the Global Maritime Industry

The global maritime industry is the backbone of globalization and international trade, contributing to human wellbeing through growth and development all around the world. But there is still great potential to increase the role and positive impact of the maritime industry.

Join us in Denmark on October 6-10 to unleash the potential of the global maritime industry.

A Platform for Collaboration

Creating a global platform for collaboration across sectors, Danish Maritime Days offers excellent opportunities to discuss strategic challenges and innovative solutions in a new thinking context.

Danish Maritime Days

Danish Maritime Days is a major new event for the global maritime industry. It will be an opportunity to meet your peers from around the world, to make new connections, to be inspired and to pave the way for new partnerships.

Danish Maritime Days focuses squarely on the challenges facing the industry today and provides a platform to develop new and innovative solutions. With many events on the agenda, the program covers such diverse topics as arctic shipping, international trade and development, piracy, recruitment, education, offshore shipping and much more.

Danish Maritime Days takes place on 6-10 October 2014 in and around Copenhagen and throughout Denmark.

Shaping the Future of the Maritime Industry

Danish Maritime Forum is a high-level meeting bringing together key leaders in the global maritime industry with policymakers, experts and other influential decision-makers and opinion shapers. Together, they will work to achieve a common goal: to unleash the full potential of the global maritime industry to increase human wellbeing.

Danish Maritime Forum is by invitation only and takes place on 8-9 October 2014 in Copenhagen.

Join the Platform

Global maritime stakeholders are invited to host relevant events as part of Danish Maritime Days. Take advantage of the synergies arising from the participation in a larger platform of independent, international maritime events, such as conferences, briefings, exhibitions, symposia, company visits, receptions and dinners.

Please go to www.danishmaritimedays.com to register your event.

Join us in October for five days of inspiration, collaboration and networking in and around Copenhagen and throughout Denmark.
